COLONEL THATCHER PASSES UP ALTURAS

Colonel Thatcher, who was recently entertained in this city, gave Alturas the go-by a few days ago, according to the Alturas Plaindealer. That paper has the following to say concerning the occurrence:

"Colonel Thatcher, the apostle of good roads, billed to lecture in Alturas, and who was making the journey from New York to San Francisco in a 'prairie schooner,' arrived in Alturas Saturday afternoon. But the Colonel tarried not, in spite of the fact that he was billed to lecture to our people on the virtues of good roads. In fact, the Colonel arrived ahead of time, and stayed not with his weather-beaten craft of the desert and plain.

"The vehicle in which the Colonel rode was well calculated to advertise him without the use of newspapers and posters. As a matter of fact, it was a curiosity, composed of sticks and wire, and resembled the prairie schooner of the early emigrants as a wheelbarrow resembles a weather-beaten three-master.

"Just why the gallant Colonel vouchsafed not to enlighten our citizens on good roads and things the opponent sayeth not. Possibly after traveling over the roads through Burleigh Valley and across the Warner range, and taking a glimpse of Alturas streets, he regarded us as being beyond redemption. It surely was not because our roads and streets were perfect beyond hopes of betterment. At any rate, after visiting the post-office and drug store, he jumped into his nondescript of a vehicle, and giving his donkeys a resounding whack with the whip, onward sped, whence and whither we know not. He impressed us as a fakir of a peculiar brand of his own. At any rate, his like has not been seen at any time in this neck of the woods.

LOWER RATES RUIN COMPANY

SHOWING IN MADE BEFORE THE STATE COMMISSION AND RAILWAY NOW GOES INTO COURT TO SETTLE THE MATTER

SALEM, Oct. 8.—An injunction suit was filed here by the Sumpter Valley Railway company to restrain the state railroad commission from enforcing an order made to go into effect immediately, reducing passenger and freight rates on the company's road in Eastern Oregon, running out of Baker.

The company alleges the commission's order will reduce its passenger revenues about $6,000 annually and its freight income between $5,000 and $7,000 annually, which will result in cutting off all profits in the operation of the road.

The commission's order fixed passenger rates at the uniform rate of 4 cents per mile, and fixed a rate of $2.50 per 1,000 feet on green lumber shipped from Austin to Baker, and also fixed rates on log shipments.
